

Lewatha, My Navajo Bride

sheet music key: F

music by E.S.S. Huntington • words by Loa E. Harrington • 1919

As I sit by my door near the rest-less San Juan, and watch the bright glow in the West, My—
With her sweet, gen-tle ways. amd a jeart pf pure gold, and eyes that were bright as the morn, She was thoughts wan-der back to the sweet long a - go, ere Le - wa - tha had gone to her rest. How we dear - er to me than the whole world be-side, and my heart with deep an - guish is torn. The tall wan - dered at eve through the cot - ton-wood trees, and heard the glad night - in - gale's song. But the Ship - rock a - far points it's sen - ti - nel spire to the home where my loved one has gone. Yet, in great Fa - ther called and she left me a - lone in our home near the rest - less San Juan.

fan - cy I see her bright spi - rit draw near to our home near the rest - less San Juan.

Now the rest - less San Juan moans a re - qui-em low for the one who has gone from my side, And a feel - ing of lone - li - ness steals o'er my heart for Le - wa - tha, my Na - va - jo bride.