TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS NEWSLETTER - ISSUE 15

Ronan continues to celebrate entrepreneurs this month as Regina Bushell CEO Grovelands Childcare celebrates 30 years of business; sisters Samantha and Sinead of S&S Soap Sisters opened their first store in Portlaoise and John Tuohy formerly of Parcel Motel introduces his new venture OohPod.

On top of all that Laois' NetSupport collected a third consecutive Business All Star' the inaugural Offaly Job Fair was launched and listeners learned how 90% of sales revenue from the National Lottery goes back into the community. Tullamore native David Tuohy of global energy company Kent was home for the first time in 5 years and dropped by to talk about energy transition and life in Texas.

GOOD NEWS STORIES OF THE MONTH:

This month Laois and Offaly Education & Training Board launched an innovative Digital Construction Traineeship. FET Manger Padraig Boland dropped in to explain the objectives of the course and how to get involved.
