TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS NEWSLETTER - ISSUE 16

In the month the government set-out sectoral climate action targets, Ronan explored Bord na Mona's transition to renewable electricity generation and introduced an initiative for the agri-food sector providing information, services and finance to encourage those in the sector to adopt and embrace digital technologies with a focus on sustainable land management for reducing carbon footprint. In the Agri industry and use of open source aerial technology to improve farming processes, and in turn increase yields and productivity. A real 'farm to fork' story this month too from the Browne Group as they opened a new venue in Tullamore.

A new form of digital business card was discovered thanks to Athlone's TAPiTAG and an utterly amazing addition arrived to Mullingar's streetscape - Sugar Plum Sweetery. The head of Waterland Private Equity outlined their ambition to invest in small to medium businesses and, a local estate agent celebrated winning a national award.

GOOD NEWS STORIES OF THE MONTH:

Tommy Clarke's Barbers was established 170 years ago in Tullamore and its story continues with David Feely taking the reins in the barbershop where he has worked for over ten years.
