

Alderney Wild Seas Discovery Week

23rd July - 2nd August 2025

Wildlife and Heritage Discovery Boat trips

Wednesdays and Saturdays
23/7, 26/7, 30/7 and 2/8

Marine Tank Session at the Moorings

Thursday 24th July, 15:30–16:30
Free event

Coastal Foraging Walk

Saturday, 26th July, 14:00–15:00
Meet at Platte Saline west car park (below Fort Tourgis) / £10 adults, £6 children (50% discount for members)

Shoresearch Rockpooling at Raz (Longis)

Monday, 28th July, 15:30–17:00
Free event. Find, identify and record wildlife on Longis Bay.

David Attenborough's Ocean Documentary and Sustainable Seafood Dinner

Tuesday, 29th July, 18:30–22:30
at Blonde Hedgehog

Join us for a free screening of Ocean with David Attenborough and a locally sourced seafood dinner at The Blonde Hedgehog. Dinner: £50 pp (booking through The Blonde Hedgehog). To book, please call 01481 823230 or email book@blondehedgehog.com

Marine Tank Session at the Moorings

Wednesday, 30th July, 15:30–16:30
Free event

National Whale & Dolphin Watch - Seabird ID

Thursday, 31st July, 12:00–14:00
Fort Albert (meet at top car park)

*Learn seabird ID skills from AWT's ecologists and help record any dolphins and whales that move through our waters.
Free event. Bring your lunch.*

Ocean Documentary - Community Screening

Friday, 1st August, 18:30–21:00 at the Island Hall. Free public screening of 'Ocean with David Attenborough' documentary. Bar and nibbles will be available.

Ocean Documentary - Intimate Screening

Saturday, 2nd August, 10:30–12:30
Held in the Braye Beach Hotel cinema.
The showing will be introduced by our Marine Team with a short talk on what makes Alderney's seas so important.
Free screening. Tea, coffee, and cake offered by Braye Hotel at £5 per person.