

Job Description

Non-Executive Director
Channel Radio Limited

Reports to: Chair of the Board of Directors

THE ROLE

- The postholder will use their experience, knowledge and commercial acumen and to guide and advise on the work of Channel Radio's business, including Channel 103, Soleil Radio and their associated digital platforms.
- They are likely to have a professional background, be well connected locally and active in Jersey business life.
- Knowledge of the marketing/media sector is desirable, with experience in digital channels and platforms being particularly relevant.
- The postholder is required to be ordinarily resident in Jersey.

KEY DUTIES & AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

- Participate fully in the work of the Board of Directors and maintain appropriate links with individual Directors.
- Comply with generally accepted governance and fiduciary responsibilities relating to the conduct of the business without limitations or reservations.
- Maintain and foster a good relationship with the principle shareholder - the Tindle Family via the Group CEO, Danny Cammiade.
- Establish and maintain a close working relationship with the Managing Director (James Keen) and Commercial Director (Lorna Byrne) and
- Attend quarterly Board Meetings and any other additional Board Meetings convened for special purposes.

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY

- The Board of Directors are committed to seeking candidates from a diverse range of backgrounds, taking full account of equal opportunities. All appointments are made on merit. Non-Executive Directors must be committed to equality and the need to provide equal opportunities for protected characteristics, including age, disability, gender, gender reassignment, marriage/civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief and sexual orientation.

COMMUNICATION AND WORKING RELATIONSHIPS

- Board of Directors
- Senior Managers within Channel 103 and the wider Tindle Radio group
- Stakeholders in the Jersey business community